*Explaining
QCE
ATAR
VET Pathway*

Session 2 of 3

QCE: Queensland Certificate of Education

- Awarded to eligible students (usually at the end of Year 12).
- Students must pass a minimum of 6 subjects
- Students must have a literacy and numeracy accreditation.
- Students may study school subjects and certificate courses as part of their QCE.
- Students need to achieve a satisfactory 'C' grade to gain credits towards their QCE.
- Students need to have banked 20 credits to gain their QCE (see handout)

ATAR

Australian Tertiary
Admission Ranking

If you want to do a university course after year 12

- Most university courses require an ATAR score for entry
- Many university courses have pre-requisite subjects: e.g. General English and Maths Methods for Engineering; General English, a Maths and a Science subject for Primary Education
- Choose subjects that make you eligible for an ATAR or are pre-requisites for your course
- Discuss/check pre-requisites at SET Plan Meeting

What is an ATAR?

Australian Tertiary Admission Rank

Score used for admission to university
Score between 99.5 (highest) and 1 (lowest)

Calculated using 5 general subjects
OR
4 General subjects and 1 Applied subject
OR
4 General subjects and 1 VET Certificate III course or higher

For Work/Apprenticeship/VET Pathways

- Students can choose a variety of subjects to support their future pathway.
- These can be a combination of General (Pink), Applied (Blue) or VET (Yellow) subjects.
- TAFE are offering two courses next year
- Students need to enrol themselves
